Verona Parc Sold Out

Washington Business Journal - May 4, 2007

Verona Parc, an eight-story condominium building at 13th and Euclid streets NW, has sold out.

The 33 residences in Columbia Heights went for $300,000 to $600,000 a unit.

"Verona Parc was one of the first new boutique condominium buildings in the Columbia Heights neighborhood, which has since been joined by many other condominium developments in that area," says Niki Piersall, vice president at McWilliams Ballard, the company hired to sell and market the condominiums.
